7: 02 meeting started with prayer from Fr. Gregory

Approved August 21st meeting minutes with minor changes

Sherry reported on financial and other matters:

- YTD income through October was $24,600, approximately $30,200 higher than budget.
- New phones are in and working.
- Parish will be switching out Fr's laptop, adding a second workstation in the office (Laptop), rebuilding the server for St. Bernard's and networking it to speak with the Ascension server.
- APBA Meeting: Catholic Community Foundation suggested having a representative visit with parishes on End of Life Annuity Investments, etc.

Leo reported on Buildings and Grounds

- Lead found in the school is limited to the water fountains.
- Crack in the archway on threshold of sanctuary is getting larger. Recommendation to repair it and paint the archway the same color as window archways.
- School boiler needs increasing work. Leo to research replacement costs versus parts cost.

Laura provided an update on the Joint Leadership Team

- Leadership Committee is going through all groups/committees, identifying leaders and the reporting tree. Next meeting is December 4th.

Father Gregory:

- Marcia Tellers – CCF funds of $23,900. Council recommended to postpone use of the funds until closer to the FYE (April timeframe).

Ralph: Campus committee met on November 9th, waiting on feedback from Faith Formation leaders regarding use of space.

Next meeting will be held January 15th, 2018

Father ended the meeting with a prayer.
